

Anthony Malangone joins Metinvest as the CIO

Mr Anthony Malangone has been appointed the Chief Information Officer of METINVEST HOLDING, LLC. As the CIO Mr Malagnone will be responsible for developing Metinvest's IT strategy and aligning IT with the long term goals of the business, standardization of IT business process and along with managing IT function.

Anthony Malangone has broad experience in the US and international companies in strategy development and implementation of ERP systems. For the last 5 years he worked as the CIO at RTI International Metals (USA) one of the largest producers of titanium mill products for the aerospace, industrial and defense global markets. He oversaw the planning of the strategic vision for taking the SAP R/3 systems for a 250M dollar company and transforming them into highly stable and cost effective systems for the company to reach 1 billion in revenue including the building of global data center and center of excellence to support the growth.

Mr. Malangone is a graduate of the University of Colorado in Boulder Colorado with an MBA in Business.

For editors:

Metinvest is an international vertically integrated mining and metallurgical group of companies, Production facilities of Metinvest Group enterprises allow both to satisfy own demand for raw materials, liquid steel and semi-finished products and to be key supplier for major Ukrainian and European companies as well as Asian companies, The shareholders of Metinvest Group are SCM Group (75%) and Smart Holding (25%) that take part in management of Metinvest Group on partnership basis.

Metinvest Holding is the managing company of Metinvest Group.